Wallingford

Join the dynamic organization that promotes business in Wallingford.

Since 1910, the Wallingford Chamber of Commerce has been helping build a strong network of local businesses. By connecting through the Chamber, businesses can promote Wallingford's distinctive charm and special community events. Together, we can learn from each other and make Wallingford a better place to work, shop, dine, play and stroll.

Helping Businesses Succeed

The Chamber provides lots of opportunities for members to get information, share ideas and make business contacts, including:

- Monthly Luncheon Programs
- Business After Hours Social Gatherings
- Educational Seminars
- Chamber-sponsored Community Events

Visit Us

The Chamber meets the third Thursday of the month (except August and December), from noon to 1:30 p.m. Call the Chamber office at 632-0645 for reservations. The office also has information on educational and community events sponsored by the Chamber.

Supporting the Community

Wallingford is a vibrant community with a personality all its own. The Chamber encourages the preservation of Wallingford's unique character by identifying important community issues, serving as a liaison with local government, and balancing the concerns of business people and residents for the benefit of all.

The Chamber's Mission:

- Increase awareness of local businesses and services
- Foster communication among local businesses and institutions
- Provide members with educational resources
- Interact with local government
- Enhance the neighborhood identity

Making Positive Changes

Over the years, the Chamber has been involved in lots of community projects, including:

- Installing the Animal Storm totem pole at the Wallingford Center.
- Creating the Wallingford Resource Directory.
- Completing street beautification projects and planting trees throughout the neighborhood.
- Co-sponsoring the Wallingford Street Fair since 1998.
- Creating an art poster, shopping bags and shopping carts that celebrate the Wallingford community.
- Designing and installing the colorful banners along 45th Street that welcome visitors to the neighborhood.
- Completed planning for Wallingford Business District assesment.
